By this Procedural Order No 5 the Independent Review Panel (“IRP”) acknowledges that by the email correspondence dated March 8, 2022, the Claimant and the Respondent proposed the IRP to postpone the conference call scheduled for March 9, 2022, due to still ongoing discussions between the Parties regarding the discovery in the present proceedings. The IRP agrees to postpone the conference call.

The panel does not approve that the Parties have not met the deadlines set forth in Procedural Order No. 3, Paragraphs 2a and 2b.

Having in regard the foregoing, the IRP hereby orders the Parties to:

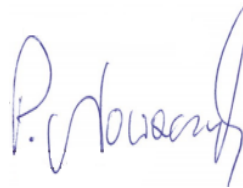

1. Promptly meet and confer on all remaining discovery disputes.
2. Promptly complete service of the Parties’ requests for document production and the respective responses to the other side’s requests, if not already done.
3. Prepare and deliver to the IRP not later than on April 11, 2022, a summary concerning:
 - a) all discovery disputes that remain unresolved as of April 11, 2022, such including the reasons for any delay in completing production of documents and what the parties propose to resolve those issues, including any motions before the IRP.
 - b) and other issues that require discussion with the IRP which might have a direct bearing on the IRP’s capacity to issue a scheduling order setting a firm hearing date.

The summary referred to in point (3) shall not exceed 5 pages (font Times New Roman, size 11 p., minimum line spacing 1.15, margins 2.5 cm.).

4. The next conference call between the IRP and the Parties will be held on April 20, 2022, at 8 AM PST/PDT.

Done in Warsaw, Poland

Respectfully yours

Piotr Nowaczyk
Presiding Panelist
